

- Finsbury Tower is the tall white building (Fourth building on your left).

Old Street

This underground station is on the Northern Line, and also has connections to First Capital Connect rail services.

Leaving the station

- From the exit barriers, follow the signs to Exit six (to Old Street).
- Walk up the ramp, and walk down Old Street – away from the roundabout and past a petrol station on your left.
- Follow the road until you reach a crossroads with a JD Wetherspoon pub on the corner on your left.
- Turn left down Bunhill Row.
- Finsbury Tower is a tall white office block, two minutes walk down Bunhill Row, on your right.

Liverpool Street

This main transport hub is on a number of underground lines - Circle, District, Central, Hammersmith & City and Metropolitan. It is also served by First Capital Connect and National Express East Anglia rail services.

Leaving the station

- From the main concourse, follow the signs for the Broadgate exit.
- Walk past the metal sculpture and up the steps
- Follow the signposts to the Barbican Centre.
- Carry on straight ahead (past HSBC bank on your right).
- Turn right at the next major junction into Finsbury Pavement.
- Take the next left into Chiswell Street.
- Continue straight ahead (past PC World on the right) and then take the next right into Bunhill Row.
- Finsbury Tower is the tall white building (Fourth building on your left).

London Transport bus services

Old Street

Bus routes stopping are: 55, 243 and 505.

- Follow directions from Old Street London Underground station.

City Road/Finsbury Square

Bus routes stopping on City Road and Finsbury Square are: 43, 76, 141, 214 and 271.

- Get off the bus at Finsbury Square.
- At the corner of Finsbury Square and Chiswell Street there is a NatWest bank.
- Turn down Chiswell Street and walk down it until you reach Bunhill Row on your right.
- Finsbury Tower is the tall white building (Fourth building on your left).

By car

There is limited car parking available at Finsbury Tower. If you would like to book a space, please contact Reception on 03000 616161 with your vehicle registration details.

There is also a car park located at the Barbican Arts and Conference Centre (off Aldersgate St) and an NCP car park at Finsbury Square.